

EXPOSING LIES ABOUT ISRAEL

I want to pick up where I left off last week. The issue of Israel's existence has little to do with whether or not the Jewish people are righteous and moral, or whether or not they deserve to have their own state (which they do). Rather, the issue of Israel's existence has to do with the righteousness of God's character. What's stake is God's honor. Regardless of the present spiritual condition of the Jewish people; regardless of the faults of the current State of Israel, the truth of the matter is that the very existence of a Jewish State glorifies God because it reveals His faithfulness to His promises.

Most of the distortions and fabrications people hear about Israel every day are not based on what the Bible teaches because most anti-Israel critics don't even believe the Bible. They're secular Israel haters so they don't use theology to convince people that Israel is an "occupation government" or an "apartheid state. They use revisionist history, deliberate mis-representations of Israeli statements and actions, and just plain old lies. When dealing with these kind of people, you have to know the real history of the establishment of modern Israel. You must be able to present them with historical facts that can be substantiated.

A small percentage of today's Israel haters are religious. They claim to be "Christians" but they're not. They're left wing church-goers or left wing pastors who propagate the same radical progressive agenda as secular left wing organizations, political parties and leaders. These people use theology to reach people secular Israel haters would never reach. The theology they use to turn Christians against Israel is some type of Replacement Theology. When dealing with these kind of people, you have to know the Scripture.

The most dangerous kind of Israel hater is the person who is skilled at combining the theological angle with the secular political angle and presenting a seamless argument against the Jewish State. This kind of person can throw most pro-Israel Christians off balance because most of us don't take the time to verse ourselves in both the Biblical narrative and the political history of that region. When dealing with these kind of people, we have to know the Scripture as well as certain important historical facts.

When the average pro-Israel stands up for the Jewish State and says God has brought the Jews back to the land according to His promise, a shrewd left wing minister can turn them to passages in the Old Testament which seem to contradict that view and make Israel look like an apartheid state. While the average pro-Israel Christian is trying to think of a response, he will quickly give them (what seems to be) a bunch of political and historical "facts" which seem to further prove the point. Unless the Christian knows the true historical facts and the real political realities of that region, they will have no answers.

Israel haters are well versed in their various historical distortions, political fabrications, and twisted logic because they're obsessed with Israel's destruction. They are totally committed to that goal and for many of them, it's what they live for. They spend a lot of time learning all the talking points and distorted history that pro-Arab spokesmen and pro-Palestinian apologists have invented. In short, they're better trained in their lies than the average pro-Israel Christian is in the truth because they're more dedicated to Israel's destruction than most pro-Israel Christians are to Israel's protection.

Just to complicate things, there is a small percentage of individuals among the multitudes of Israel haters who are genuinely seeking a peaceful resolution to the conflict. They desire to see a Palestinian State and a Jewish State living securely side by side in peace. They are very sincere in their views and their efforts at peace making. They are not simply using peace as a cover to destroy Israel. When dealing with these kind of people, you have to understand that you're dealing with people who live in fantasy world because anyone who thinks (or even hopes) that Arabs and Jews can peacefully co-exist in a sovereign Jewish State, whose culture is primarily Jewish, which is controlled by Jews, on land that once belonged to Allah, is living in a complete unreality.

First of all, the Arabs of Israel are not a “minority” in the normal sense of the term. They're a defeated enemy who believes the Jews came from Russia, from Poland, from Morocco, from Brooklyn, and stole their land by intrigue (British intervention and the UN) as well as by terrorism. This minority dwells in a land which was once theirs, where they were once the majority, but who suffered a humiliating disaster in which they are now ruled by Jewish people and a sovereign Jewish State.

That's how they see the situation. That's their reality. That's why they've been murdering Jews in that land since 1886 and why they tried to destroy the Jewish state before it was even born. Nothing will ever change their view of the situation. Whether they passively accept their minority status or actively resists it, they will always believe the land is rightfully theirs.

The average person—including blind Jewish liberals—simply do not understand what the goes on in the mind and emotions of the average Arab citizen of Israel. They are neither Jews or Zionists—and they never will be. Their identity is tied to the surrounding Arab nations through history, language, religion and culture. Everything Jewish, everything Zionist, is not only foreign to them, it's humiliating. That humiliation can't be abrogated or pacified by running water, indoor toilets, and a fine liberal education. You can't buy the Arabs off with material things or a higher standard of living. They want their country back! They want to live in a state that represents their national and cultural aspirations. They want to live in a state where the majority of the people—those who control the state—are their people.

No national group is content to live in a state whose roots, majority, language, religion, culture, holidays and very destiny are not only foreign to them but humiliating. When Israeli Arabs are told to rise and sing their national anthem, do you think they feel empathy towards the Jews or enjoy hearing the following words:

*As long as deep in the heart, the soul of a Jew yearns;
and forward to the East, to Zion, an eye looks.
Our hope will not be lost. The hope of two thousand years.
To be a free nation in our land, the land of Zion and Jerusalem

How can anybody in their right mind expect Arabs to be anything but humiliated when they hear their Declaration of Independence describe how the land they once occupied as a majority is “the birthplace of the Jewish people” who were “exiled from their land” but “never ceased to pray and hope for their return”? The Arabs are not Jews and they were not exiled. They lived on that land for generations. If anything, the Jewish dream of return meant that they would end up a minority in their own land—which is exactly what happened. For Arabs who dreamed of Jews not returning, the Jewish dream was (and still is) a nightmare!

Israel's Declaration of Independence is not only humiliating to the Arabs of Israel, it's an insult to their intelligence. Nobody takes this work of political schizophrenia seriously (except delusional liberal Jews) because it states that Arab citizens of Israel are to be “equal” citizens of Israel. Equal citizens? How can they be equal citizens when Israel must remain a Jewish State. Israeli Arabs will never be equal in a state that is irrevocably Jewish. They will never be equal in a state which by necessity must remain Jewish with a Jewish majority. They will never be equal in a state that grants automatic citizenship to Jews who never lived in the land, but denies the return of Arabs who fled in 1948, many of whom had lived in the land for generations. In this sense the Arabs of Israel will never—indeed they must never be allowed to be truly equal. Moreover, there's a certain degree of humiliation this minority will always be subjected to regardless of how well the Jewish majority treats them. That just the nature of the situation.

However, this situation wasn't planned by the Jews; nor is it what they desire. It's an unfortunate necessity if Israel is to remain a sovereign Jewish state. Israel treats its Arab citizens as equal as possible within the confines of the reality of the situation. If you want to blame someone for what's going on, you'll have to blame the Palestinian Arabs who refused to accept their own state in 1948. If they would have accepted their own state at that time they would now be living in a state where they are the majority. They would now be living in a state whose national anthem and national charter reflected their own Muslim Arab history and aspirations. They would now be living in a state whose language, religion and culture are their own.

Unfortunately the Arab citizens of Israel, as well as the Palestinians living in Gaza and the West Bank, and the entire Muslim Arab world do not view the situation that way. They view it strictly through the lense of Jewish theft of their land. But is Palestine really their land? Is it their land even according to secular history? It's true that from the early 600's till the early 1900's—with the exception of a 200 year period when the Crusaders held the territory—Palestine was in the hands of Muslims. But they conquered that land (took it by force) from the Byzantines, who had conquered it from the Romans, who had conquered it from the Greeks, who had conquered it from the Persians, and so on. In 1917 the British and allied forces conquered it (took it by force) from the Muslim Ottoman Empire.

So who's land is it—in a secular, political, legal sense? It's the land of whoever conquers it! For a time it was Persian land. For a while it was Greek land. For a while it was Roman land. For a while it was Byzantinian land. For a while it was Latin (Crusader) land. For a while it was (Muslim) Turkish land. For a while it belonged to the whole world (League of Nations). Then it became British land. Now it's Jewish land.

When the Greeks took Palestine from the Persians there were no “negotiations” regarding ownership of the land. To the victor goes the spoil and the land became Greek (owned) land. When the Romans took Palestine from the Greeks there were no “negotiations” regarding ownership of the land. To the victor goes the spoil and the land became Roman (owned) land. When the Byzantines took Palestine from the Romans there were no “negotiations” regarding ownership of the land. To the victor goes the spoil and the land became Byzantinian (owned) land. The same goes for the rest of the kingdoms or empires that conquered Palestine. Once conquered, it automatically became the property of the nation that conquered it.

But again, Muslims do not recognize or accept this kind of political or historical reality because they can't accept it. They can't accept it because of their filthy religion, which seeks to enslave the whole world. According to Islam, the world is divided into two categories: Dar al Islam (the abode of Islam) and Dar al Harb (the abode of war). Dar al Islam is that part of the world which has already submitted to Allah. Dar al Harb is that part of the world which has not yet submitted to Allah. There's a reason Muslims call the territory that has not yet submitted to Allah the abode (or housed) of war. It's because they are commanded by the Koran and the Hadith to make war against that territory until it does submit to Allah. World conquest is the goal and Islam is making great headway in that effort. Dar al Islam consists of 46 countries, 22 of which are Arabic.

Not until people truly understand the Islamic frame of mind will they ever be able to understand the relentless Arab war against Israel or the unwillingness of the Palestinians to make peace. Since the stated goal of Islam is to conquer all territory, the loss of any territory that was once conquered is a very serious matter. While Dar al Islam (the abode of Islam) can make temporary peace with Dar al Harb (the abode of war) if the situation demands it, Dar al Islam will never tolerate the loss of any of its own territory. The Land of Israel belonged to Dar al Islam for almost 1300 years, but now it belongs to Dar al Harb. The loss of this territory in the heart of Dar al Islam to Jews is anathema! It's seen by Muslims as a defeat of cosmic proportions.

The Jewish victory in 1948 created the ultimate challenge to the Islamic world and struck at the very heart of Islamic theology, which says that Allah is the only true God and he will give Muslims victory over all non-Muslim peoples and their false gods. For Arabs, the size of Israel is immaterial. They would be just as fanatical about reconquering the territory of Israel even if that territory was a ten-mile stretch of land in the Negev Dessert! The very existence of a sovereign Jewish State on land once conquered by Islam—regardless of its size—is an affront to Allah and a humiliation to the whole Islamic world. This is why Arabs consider the establishment of Israel the greatest “catastrophe” of all time.

Now, let's look at some of the fabrications Israel haters propagate:

MYTH: THE PALESTINIAN PEOPLE HAVE A HISTORIC CONNECTION TO THE LAND

This is a double fabrication. First, there is no such thing as a distinct “Palestinian” people. The Arabs who lived in the land that eventually became Israel considered themselves part of the greater Arab nation. In particular, they saw themselves as part of Greater Syria, which encompassed modern day Syria, Lebanon, and part of Israel. Second, there has never been a “Palestinian” state or commonwealth in that region. There was, however, a sovereign and independent Jewish State (called Israel) in that region for many centuries. In 70 A.D. the Romans changed the name of Israel to “Palestine”. But neither Rome, or any of the proceeding empires that conquered that territory, ever established a separate state there. Those who claim (or insinuate) there was a ever a “Palestinian” state in that area need to answer the following questions:

When was the “State of Palestine” founded and by whom?

What were its borders?

What was its capital?

What form of government did it adopt?

What constituted the basis of its economy?

What was the name of its currency and what was the approximate exchange rate.

Since there is no such country today, what caused its demise and when did it occur?

If the “Palestinians” are really a separate ethnic people who have the right to self-determination, why did they wait until 1967 to seek self determination? Why didn't they seek self-determination while living under Ottoman rule for 1200 years? Why didn't they seek self determination while living under Jordanian rule from 1948 till 1967? Why did they wait until Israel captured the West Bank and Gaza Strip to seek self determination?

MYTH: ISRAEL IS AN APARTHEID STATE

The term Apartheid refers to the segregation of groups on the basis of ethnicity or race, and the denial of basic civil rights to that segregated group. There is no such segregation in Israel. Arabs are granted full civil rights under Israeli law, which forbids discrimination on the basis of race, creed, or sex. Arabs take part fully in Israeli society and government. Arab citizens of Israel vote in national elections, have representatives in the Israeli Parliament, sit on the Israeli courts and on the Israeli Supreme Court benches, and serve as tenured professors teaching in Israeli colleges and universities. The Arab citizens of Israel have more rights, and enjoy more freedom, education, and economic opportunity than the Arabs of any Arab state.

MYTH: THE ARABS WANT PEACE AND A STATE ON THE WEST BANK

The Arabs of Palestine rejected peace and a state on the West Bank first in 1948 when it was offered to them by the United Nations, and again in 2000 when it was offered by Presidents Clinton and Barak. If the Palestinians wanted peace they would have already made peace. They haven't made peace because they do not want a state in the West Bank that lives in peace with Israel. They want the entire State of Israel.

MYTH: ISRAEL'S SECURITY FENCE IS AN "APARTHEID" WALL

This is two myths in one. First of all, the security fence is just that—a chain link fence. Only 3% of the fence is concrete and it's purpose is to prevent sniper fire in particular areas. The fence was built in 2003 in response to thousands of suicide bombings and rocket attacks on Israeli citizens by Palestinian terrorists, sponsored and armed by the Palestinian Authority and Hamas. It was built to keep out terrorists, not Arabs. In the years since the construction of the fence, terrorist attacks have declined by more than 90%. The fence is Israel's legitimate defense against a ruthless and amoral terrorist aggressor.

MYTH: ISRAEL IS THE CAUSE OF THE REFUGEE PROBLEM

The Palestinians claim there are 5 million refugees who fled Israel during the 1948 war. This is false. There were only 500,000 Arab refugees from the 1948 war—an unprovoked war that Egypt and four other Arab states had launched against the newly created state of Israel. The Arab regimes have been given billions of dollars by Israel and the United States to relocate their refugees. But the Palestinians are still in refugee camps. The refugee "issue" has been created by the Arab regimes as a weapon in their war against the Jews.

MYTH: ISRAEL COMMITS WAR CRIMES BY KILLING CIVILIANS

Such a charge is almost comical, coming from Palestinians who have made terrorist attacks on civilians their Modus Operandi. The Gaza Strip has become a base for terrorists who have fired more than 10,000 rockets into civilian areas of Israel since 2006. Israeli soldiers go out of their way to protect civilians in military engagements, even though most of those civilians are in agreement with the terrorists and willingly allow them to hide in their homes. They have died trying to flush terrorists of civilian homes.

MYTH: JEWS HAVE LITTLE HISTORICAL CONNECTION TO ISRAEL

Jews have lived continuously in the land of Israel for over 3000 years. The Arabs arrived through multiple invasions, beginning in the 7th Century. In the year 70 AD, when the Romans forced most of the Jews of Judea and Samaria into exile, a Jewish civilization was already over 1000 years old. In addition, not all the Jews were expelled from Judea and Samaria. Historical records show that some Jews simply moved out of harm's way until a less hostile power came to rule.

To the left is a map of the “Levant” (in red). Until about 200 AD—and despite the genocides of Jewish-Roman Wars—the Jews formed a majority of the population in Southern Levant. If you look closely, Southern Levant includes the territory of Palestine. By 300 AD., Samaritans and Greco-Romans became the dominant societies in this region but there were still many Jews living in that area. By the beginning of the Byzantine period, the Jews formed the majority in that area again and were living alongside Samaritans, pagan Greco-Syrians and a small Christian community. In 351–352, there was another Jewish revolt against a Roman governor. The Jewish population in Sepphoris rebelled against Constantius Gallus and was eventually subdued.

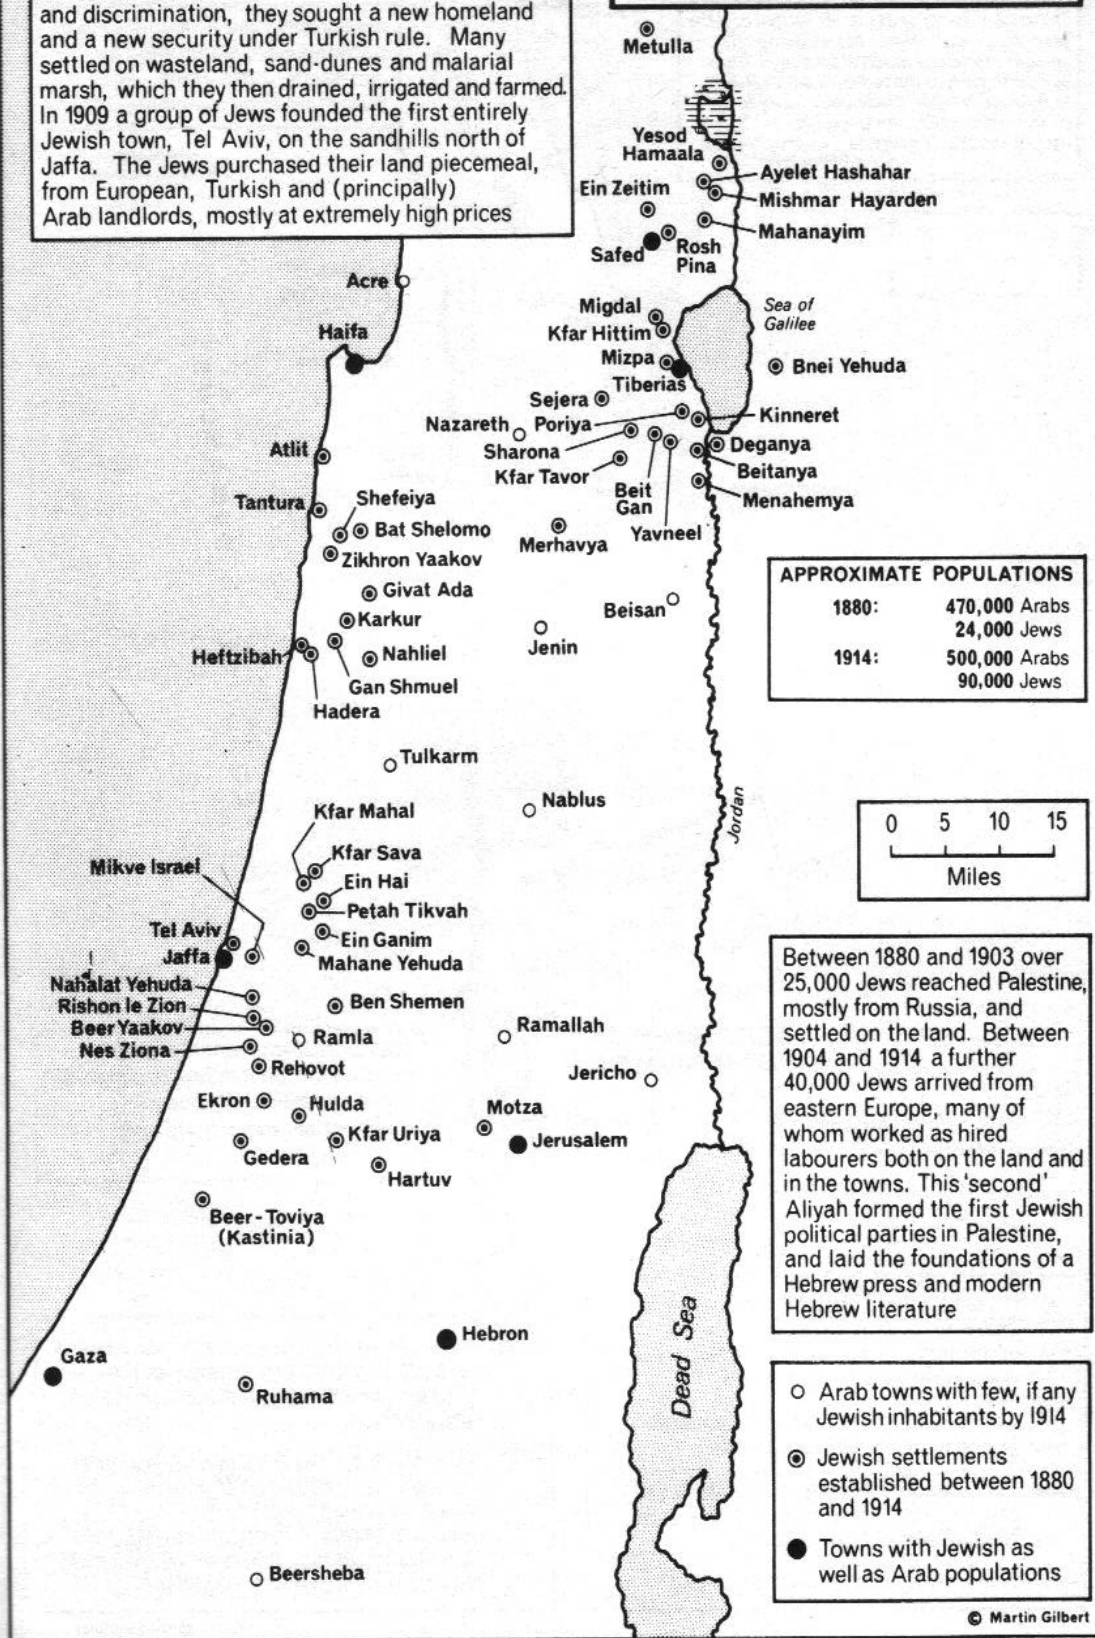

During the reign of Emperor Julian (361-363), he abolished the special taxes paid by the Jews to the Roman government. He also eased the burden of mandatory financial support of the Jewish patriarchate—the governing legalistic body of Palestinian Jewry after the destruction of the Temple.

Emperor Julian also gave permission for the Jews to rebuild Jerusalem. In fact, he initiated the restoration of the Jewish Temple. Imagine that! A group of over 2000 Jews from Persian districts of Rome set out for Jerusalem, hoping to assist in the construction effort but they were killed en-route by Persian soldiers. A very powerful earthquake—combined with Emperor Julian's death—put an end to Jewish hopes of rebuilding Jerusalem and the Third Temple. Had the attempt to rebuild the Temple been successful, it's very likely the re-establishment of the Jewish State with its sacrifices, priests and Sanhedrin would have occurred at that time.

According to most historians, the Jews constituted a majority (or near majority) of the population of Palestine until Constantine converted to Christianity. They lived in at least forty-three communities—twelve towns on the coast, in the Negev, and east of the Jordan, and thirty-one villages in Galilee and in the Jordan valley. Below are maps showing historical events that took place in the territory of Palestine from 636 - 1914, and what part the Jews played in those events. Only an ignorant fool or a premeditated liar would say Jews had no historical connection to Israel.

Between 1880 and 1914 over sixty thousand Jews entered Palestine, mostly from Russia, Galicia, Rumania and Poland. The victims of persecution and discrimination, they sought a new homeland and a new security under Turkish rule. Many settled on wasteland, sand-dunes and malarial marsh, which they then drained, irrigated and farmed. In 1909 a group of Jews founded the first entirely Jewish town, Tel Aviv, on the sandhills north of Jaffa. The Jews purchased their land piecemeal, from European, Turkish and (principally) Arab landlords, mostly at extremely high prices

JEWISH SETTLEMENT IN PALESTINE 1880 - 1914

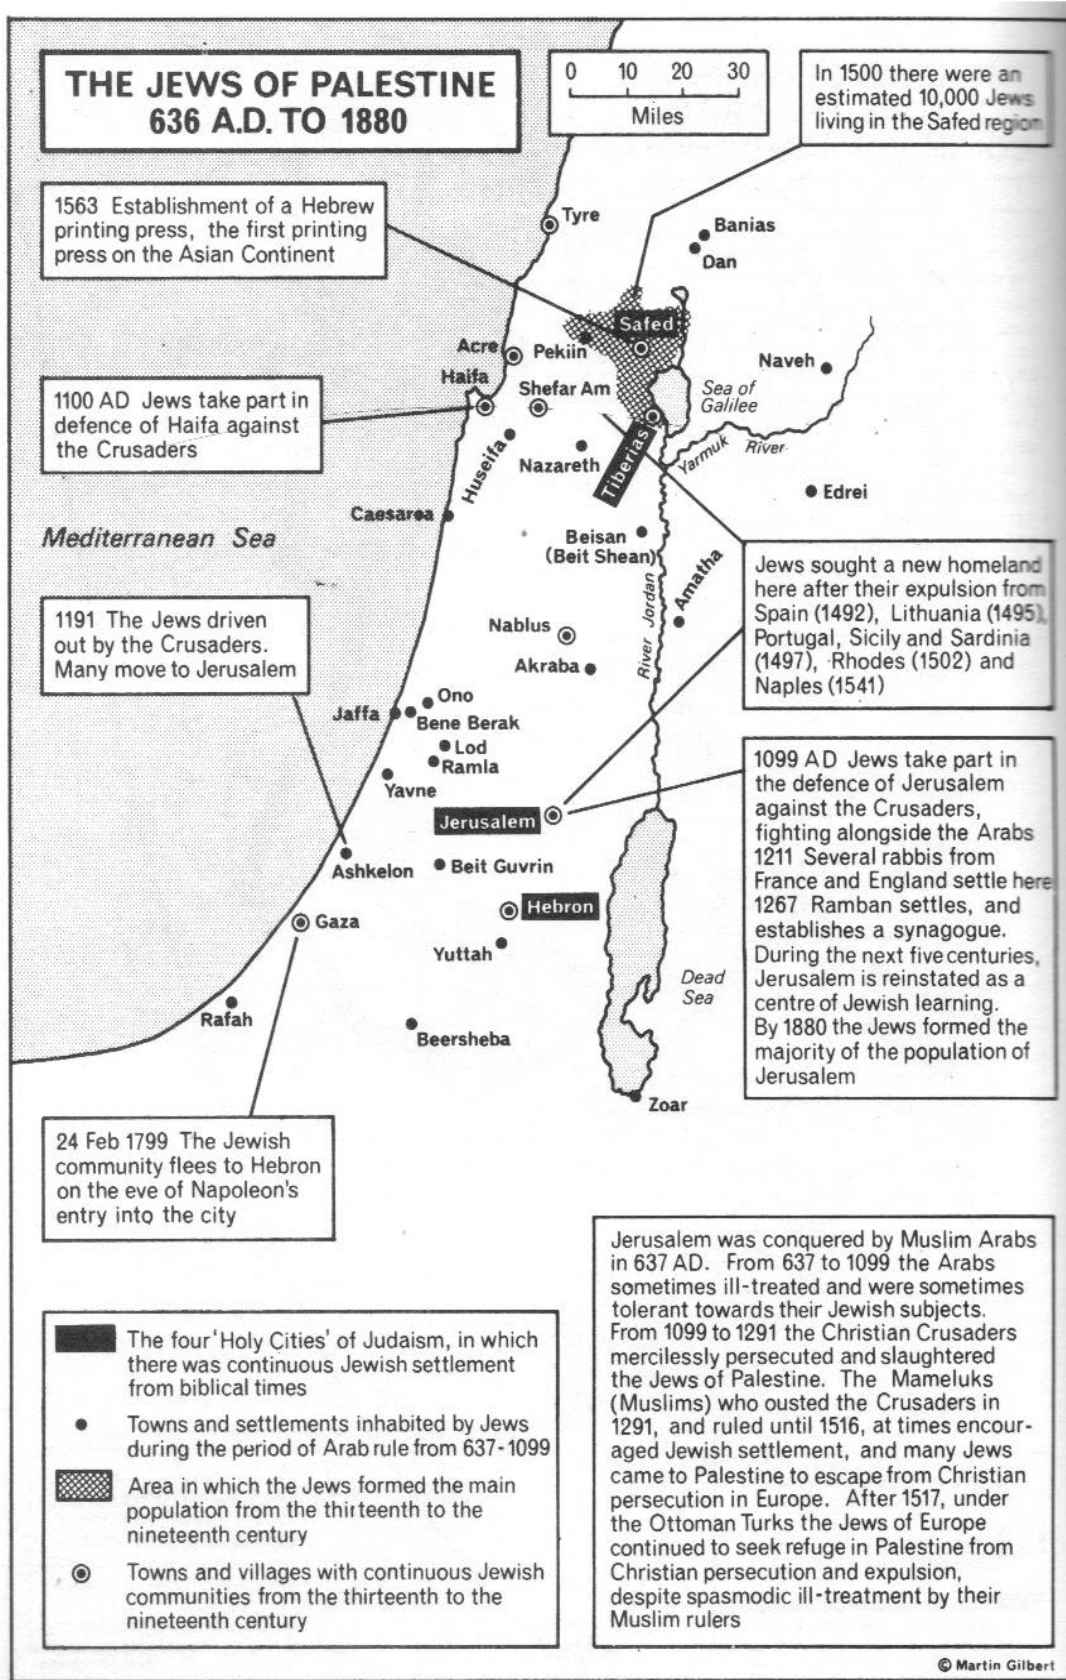

APPROXIMATE POPULATIONS
1880:	470,000 Arabs 24,000 Jews
1914:	500,000 Arabs 90,000 Jews

Between 1880 and 1903 over 25,000 Jews reached Palestine, mostly from Russia, and settled on the land. Between 1904 and 1914 a further 40,000 Jews arrived from eastern Europe, many of whom worked as hired labourers both on the land and in the towns. This 'second' Aliyah formed the first Jewish political parties in Palestine, and laid the foundations of a Hebrew press and modern Hebrew literature

MYTH: ARABS AND JEWS LIVED IN PEACE BEFORE ISRAEL WAS ESTABLISHED

Throughout the centuries, Jews as well as Christians, living under Islamic rule suffered persecution and humiliation, the intensity of which was determined by the character of a particular Moslem ruler. The more “religious” the ruler, the more harsh the rule. As second-class citizens, there was never a good time for non-Muslims to be living under Islamic rule because Islam requires all non-Muslim be made to “feel” their subjugation—meaning, must be publicly humiliated. Laws are passed specifically to humiliate non-Muslims.

Palestinians and pro-Palestinian apologists also say Arabs and Jews lived together peacefully before the rise of Zionism (1896). They say it was only when the Palestinians realized that the Jews intended to steal their land and create a Jewish State that they resorted to violence. Well, in 1834 there was no such thing as Zionism and there was no Zionist State of Israel; yet, in that same year, Palestinian Arabs looted the property and murdered many Jews in a village called Safed, in northern Israel. An Arab revolt led by the Egyptians had gained control over certain parts of the Levant during the 1830s. The Palestinians in and around Safed appear to have taken advantage of a temporary breakdown in Ottoman authority as a result of that fighting and they decided to plunder the Jews. The principal inciter was a self-proclaimed prophet named of Muhammed Damoor.

Palestinians beat Jews in the streets and many were beaten to death. The Palestinians also attacked synagogues, destroying both the buildings and the holy books. The entire Jewish community was forced to flee and hide in the mountains and caves, ruins, and where ever else they could evade the Palestinians. Some of those who attacked the Jews were neighbors and business associates. The attacks went on for 33 days, from June 15th - 17th. There does not appear to have been a political agenda. The Jewish community had no political power and was unarmed. The purpose was simply to rob the Jews of their wealth. By the way, this wasn't the first time the local Muslim population murdered Jews in Safed. In 1660 they murdered all but one Jew.

Under the more religious Muslim Turkish rule (starting in 1516), Jews had to pass Muslims on their left side (the side of Satan). Sultan Murad III decreed death for all Jews of the Ottoman Empire but later commuted the sentence. In 1586, the famous Ramban Synagogue of the Old City of Jerusalem was seized by Muslim authorities. This had been the last synagogue in Jerusalem remaining in Jewish hands.

In 1775, Muslim mob violence against the Jews of Hebron was incited by the infamous blood libel. The Albanian born (Arab) called “Mamuk the Butcher” terrorized the land with his sadistic exploits through the late 1700's. To be permitted to pray by the Wailing Wall, the Jews paid a high annual rent to the Arab whose property adjoined the Wall. They paid protection money to Muslim officials, already paid by the Turkish Government, for fear of desecration of the ancient Jewish cemetery on the Mount of Olives, and of Rachel's Tomb. News of a Damascus blood libel in 1840 brought heightened waves of persecution and murder of Jews throughout Palestine

In 1914, after returning from his heinous mass slaughter of the Armenian people, Turkish commander Baha-ud Did threatened to do the same to the Jews if he ever got the chance. Fierce persecutions ensued. Use of the Hebrew language was banned. Entire Jewish families were thrown in prison. Jewish males were forced into labor battalions. Farm carts and animals were confiscated just before harvest time. The entire Jewish population of Jaffa was expelled on Passover, 1915. Resisters were hanged. Thousands wandered helplessly on the roads.

During the last few years of Muslim rulership over Palestine, torture for a Jew was the norm upon arrest. By the time the British routed the Turkish Ottomans from Palestine in 1917, the entire country, including the new Jewish settlements, had been plundered. Indeed, the documented Muslim excesses committed during the corrupt Turkish rule over Palestine from 1516 to 1917 are too numerous to record. None of this humiliation, persecution, murder and so forth had anything to do with European Zionists trying to steal the land of Palestinian Arabs. It was the natural outgrowth of obeying the filthy religion of Islam.

MYTH: THE JEWS STOLE ARAB LAND

Before the war of 1948, Jews returning to Palestine settled on unclaimed or unoccupied land, most of which was worthless desert or swamp land. They also purchased land from absentee Arab landowners—again, much of which was worthless—at outrageously inflated prices.

MYTH: ISRAEL IS THE AGGRESSOR AGAINST DEFENSELESS PALESTINIANS

In its brief history, Israel has had one war after another and each time they are blamed as the aggressor. The Arabs do not recognize the right of Israel to exist and are in a constant state of hostility against it. The same goes for the Palestinians. They do not want peace; they want the destruction of Israel.

Beneath all the politics, the real reason there is no peace in the Middle East is because of Islam. People who think Islam is just another “religion” are fools. Islam is the deification of 7th Century Arabian culture, and also the life of Mohammed. Mohammed is the perfect Muslim. He’s the supreme example of what a Muslim should be and 7th Century Muslim culture is the supreme example of the way Muslims should dress. This is why Muslims, particularly Muslim women, dress the way they do.

The faithful Muslim must emulate (follow the example of) the life of the “Prophet”. Of course, once you learn what kind of insane and murderous pervert the prophet actually was, you will more readily understand why so many Muslims (especially in the Middle East) act like rabid dogs instead of human beings.

If you want to see the true face of Islam, you can’t look at Muslims in Western nations. You have to look at Muslims in the Middle East. Observing the behavior of Muslims in their own natural environment, in an Islamic society or state, is what reveals the true face of Islam—and the true face of Islam is racial superiority, hatred for everything un-Islamic and everyone non-Muslim, terrorism, thievery, sexual perversion, slavery and war.

Mohammed said war (Jihad) was the second best thing to believing in Allah and his apostle. He commanded all faithful Muslims to subjugate or kill unbelievers. There are 123 verses in just the Quran about killing and fighting. There are hundreds more in the Hadith, Islam’s second holiest book. Below are just a few examples:

"Allah's apostle was asked, "What is the best deed?" He replied, "To believe in Allah and his Apostle." The questioner then asked, "What is the next?" He replied, "To participate in Jihad in Allah's cause."

Hadith vol. 1, no. 25

"I will instill terror into the hearts of the unbelievers, smite ye above their necks and smite all their finger-tips off them It is not ye who slew them; it was Allah."

Quran - Sura 8:12, 17

"Strike terror (into the hearts of) the enemies of Allah and your enemies."

Quran - Sura 8:60

"Fight and slay the pagans wherever ye find them, and seize them, beleaguer them, and lie in wait for them in every strategem of war."

Quran - Sura 9:5

"Fight (kill) them (non-Muslims), and Allah will punish (torment) them by your hands, cover them with shame."

Quran - Sura 9:14

"Prophet, make war on the unbelievers and the hypocrites and deal rigorously with them. Hell shall be their home: an evil fate."

Quran - Sura 9:73

"Make war upon such of those to whom the Scriptures have been given as believe not in God, or in the last day, and who forbid not that which God and His Apostle have forbidden, and who profess not the profession of the truth."

Quran - Sura 9:29

"The person who participates in (Holy Battles) in Allah's cause and nothing compels him to do so except belief in Allah and His Apostle, will be recompensed by Allah either with a reward, or booty (if he survives) or will be admitted to paradise (if he is killed)."

Hadith vol. 1:35

"A Muslim may not be punished for killing a non-Muslim: "No Muslim should be killed for killing a kafir (infidel)."

Hadith Vol 9:50

After reading the Quran, the Hadith, the life of Mohammed and the history of Islam, the only people who can maintain it's a peaceful religion are those who are deliberately lying or those who can't stand to face the truth and choose to live in denial. Terrorism and murder are the logical outcome of putting the doctrines and commandments of Mohammed into practice. Indeed, the Quran and Hadith are terrorist manuals.

The only way there could ever be peace in the Middle East is if Islam were destroyed—and that's exactly what the Lord Jesus is going to do when He returns. He will slaughter the Muslim Arab armies mercilessly and they will finally acknowledge that the God of Israel is the only true God.

Until then, the only thing we can do is stand up for the truth.
